ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE'S RULING
SETTING DATE FOR FILING SUPPLEMENTAL COMMENTS

On April 8, 2002, Southern California Edison Company (SCE) filed comments on the Draft Decision of Administrative Law Judge DeBerry granting an award of intervenor compensation to The Utility Reform Network (TURN). In the comments, SCE challenged the Commission's authority to award compensation for TURN's work in federal court. SCE did not, however, address the applicability of Order Instituting Rulemaking on the Commission's Own Motion to Revise General Order 156 (April 22, 1999) Decision (D.) 99-04-052. In that decision the Commission held that work in federal court is not compensable where "[t]he federal lawsuit did not directly challenge a decision in this proceeding." In its request for compensation, TURN stated that the relief sought by SCE in federal court was a direct challenge to the Commission's authority to rule on the accounting issues in D.01-03-082.

Therefore, the parties may file and serve concurrent supplemental comments addressing the applicability of D.99-04-052 to TURN's request no later than Wednesday, April 17, 2002.

IT IS SO RULED.

Dated April 12, 2002, at San Francisco, California.
